Know your Rights

How soon do I get to see the Judge after I have been arrested?

If you have been arrested without an arrest warrant, you must be taken before a judge “without unnecessary delay” and every case within at least 48 hours. If you have been arrested with a warrant, in Colorado, you must be taken before a judge “without unnecessary delay.”

Will I be allowed to “post bail”?

In Colorado, for most offenses (other than murder and certain violent felonies) you have a constitutional right under the Colorado state constitution to post bail and be released pending future court appearances. If your bail is not already set on a warrant or on a preset bail schedule, then your bail should be set at your first appearance before a judge. If you are in custody and your bail has not been set, you have a right under Colorado law to be brought before a judge “forthwith” as soon as you request your bail to be set.

The Right to be Free From Unreasonable Searches and Seizures. (The Fourth Amendment)

The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects, against unreasonable searches and seizures, shall not be violated and no Warrants shall issue, but upon probable cause, supported by Oath or affirmation, and particularly describing the place to be searched, and the persons or things to be seized.”

Can law enforcement officers search me if I have not been arrested?

If you are not under arrest, and you have not consented to being searched, an officer may only search you if he or she reasonably suspects that you are armed and dangerous. This search may only be a limited pat-down of the outside of your clothes to feel for weapons.

SeQuerity

Lock it when you leave

It takes only a few seconds to secure your computer and help protect it from unauthorized access. Lock down your computer every time you leave your desk.

Set up a screen-saver that will lock your computer after a pre-set amount of time and require a password to log back in.

If your computer is used by more than one person, you may want to create individual accounts, with unique login and passwords for each user.

Choose a strong password. A good password should always include upper and lowercase letters, numbers, and at least one special character. Do not set the option that allows a computer to remember any password.

Protect data on mobile devices

Ask yourself "Is it really necessary that I transport this sensitive information?" If the answer is no, then do not copy the information.

Choose a strong password. A good password should always include upper and lowercase letters, numbers, and at least one special character. Never use the same password for multiple devices or accounts.

Store your portable devices securely. When not in use, store devices out of sight and when possible in a locked drawer or cabinet.

Protect mobile devices

Password-protect your portable device.

Be sure all critical information is backed up.

Disable Bluetooth when not required.

Make sure your firewall and anti-virus are up-to-date.

Store your portable devices securely.

Record identifying information such as serial number and label your equipment if possible.

Report the loss or theft to the appropriate authorities as soon as possible.

Recipe for Spiritual Blessings in the New Year

“Forget the former things; do not dwell on the past. See, I am doing a new thing! Now it springs up; do you not perceive it? I am making a way in the wilderness and streams in the wasteland.” Isaiah 43:18-19.

“In his heart a man plans his course, but the Lord determines his steps.” Proverbs 16:9.

“Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! In his great mercy He has given us a new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.” 1 Peter 1:3.

“Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways submit to Him, and He will make your paths straight.” Proverbs 3:5-6.

“He has made everything beautiful in its time. He has also set eternity in the hearts of men; yet they cannot fathom what God has done from beginning to end.” Ecclesiastes 3:11.

“I will give you a new heart and put a new spirit in you; I will remove from you your heart of stone and give you a heart of flesh. And I will put my Spirit in you and move you to follow my decrees and be careful to keep my laws. Then you will live in the land I gave your ancestors; you will be my people, and I will be your God.” Ezekiel 36:26-28.

“Every good and perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of the heavenly lights, who does not change like shifting shadows. He chose to give us birth through the word of truth, that we might be a kind of first fruits of all he created.” James 1:17-18.

“Look to the Lord and His strength; seek his face always. Remember the wonders He has done, His miracles, and the judgments he pronounced...” 1 Chronicles 16:11-12.

“And when you stand praying, if you hold anything against anyone, forgive them, so that your Father in heaven may forgive you your sins.” Mark 11:25-26.

“The Lord your God is with you, the Mighty Warrior who saves. He will take great delight in you; in His love He will no longer rebuke you, but will rejoice over you with singing.” Zephaniah 3:17.
